

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

FROM THE FIGHTING FRONTES.

Official photo issued on behalf of French Government. They were taken by Colonel Thoms.

Trees cut down
by the Germans to render the British advance in France.

British soldiers in Italy marching to the trenches on the plain.

NATIVE INDUSTRY AT YARRABAH MISSION.

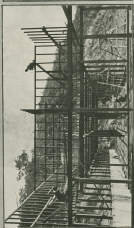

(By the people of the Yarrabah Mission.)

Street scene in the village of Buckie.

Men going out to work at the Head Station Mission House in the background.

Native carpenters building dormitories and work rooms at the Head Station.

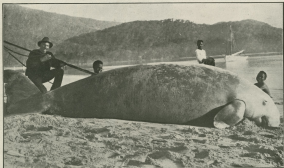

Sweet potatoes grown at Bodubudui sub-station.

TWO VIEWS OF HUDGEE WATERHOLES.

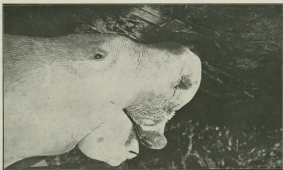

A POPULAR AFTERNOON DRIVING RESORT NEAR BRISBANE.

DUGONG HUNTING AT YARRABABI

A fine dugong harpooned in Mission Bay

A close view of the dugong's head

E. J. Gyles photo
(all rights reserved)

PRACTICAL REHABILITATION. THE QUEENSLAND SOLDIERS' EDUCATIONAL INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTE.

The Staff and students.

What Queensland Men Can Do.

Leather-working.

Shoe-making.

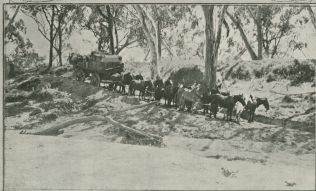

Textile-making.

Rest and Refreshment.

Our food table.

NEGOTIATING A RIVER CROSSING IN THE BACK COUNTRY.

The Approach

The "Pinch" up the other side.

